

Objection to an Application for Right of Entry

Please read carefully – Important information to know in completing this form

If you object to the application for right of entry, your objection must be filed with the Canada Energy Regulator (CER) within 10 calendar days of your receipt of the right of entry application.

This completed form and any attachments you provide the CER must also be sent to the company at the address provided in the application for right of entry.

This form and any future documents you file with the CER will appear in the CER's online public registry, meaning that your personal information and the documents themselves can be accessed and viewed by the public.

This form can be completed electronically or you can print a copy and complete it legibly in writing. See Part F below for instructions on how to file your completed form.

If you have process questions, contact the CER toll free at 1 (800) 899-1265 and ask to speak to somebody about your objection to an application for right of entry.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Alternative dispute resolution (ADR) services, such as mediation and facilitation, are available from the CER to help parties resolve disputes outside of the Commission's hearing processes. You can read more about ADR on the CER website (<https://www.cer-rec.gc.ca/adr/>).

To seek additional information or to arrange for ADR services, please contact the CER's ADR staff toll free at 1 (800) 899-1265 or by email at ADR-RED@cer-rec.gc.ca.
